

Corporate Survivor

Exciting Team Building Survivor Game

Corporate Survivor is a riveting series of survivor team building activities that will test the full measure of your team's physical & mental abilities! Loosely fashioned after the smash hit reality show, teams are commissioned to navigate a set of unique team building survivor games which incorporate communication, strategizing, leadership, and trust.

We start your event with a tribal warm-up to kick off the games. Teams will create a flag and chant, then roar into the various strategically-led survivor team building activities that may have you racing against the stopwatch, managing the unexpected, in direct head-to-head competition with another tribe!

Get ready for Giant Slingshot, where teams compete for distance and accuracy; or imagine guiding your Blindfolded team members through an Obstacle Course, with only verbal communication to get them to the finish line. In Stranded in Maine, you are given a scenario where your team must choose a limited number of items to survive being lost in the wilderness. Other activities include Stepping Stones, On Target, Rope & Knotted, Land Raft, Turn Over a New Leaf, and Nitro Circle with Ropes.

While some challenges may require that alliances be formed with other tribes, the occasional shock of losing members to a different tribe will force everyone to quickly adjust to the real-life shifting of valued members and to seize the opportunity of gaining new tribal members with new ideas and skills!

Clients Talk About this Program

The Corporate Survivors event you delivered to our group was fun and your Best Corporate Events' staff were great. My staff enjoyed every minute of the activities and was very happy with your instructors - and we survived! I appreciate you all tailoring the event to fit our structure. Thanks again!!!!
