Program Agenda

The experience begins with a high-energy welcome from your professional game show host, who introduces the trivia format, explains how to join the game, and gets everyone excited for the competition. Participants choose fun screen names, enter the game PIN on their mobile devices, and watch as the first round lights up the big screen.

As the game unfolds, sub-teams collaborate and react in real time, submitting answers through their devices and watching the leaderboard shift with each question. The variety of formats, including multiple-choice, picture-based, audio, and video questions, keeps the pace lively and ensures constant engagement. Between rounds, the host provides humorous commentary, recaps dramatic point swings, and encourages friendly rivalry among teams.

Clients Talk About this Program

Our Corporate Game Show Mania was extremely organized. The game was fun and our group enjoyed the activities. Some folks kept on going several times to participate. It was a good team building idea to put our teams together based on the month they are born.
