

Igniting Team Performance®

Igniting Team Performance®: A Dynamic Team Training Experience That Blends Purpose and Play

Igniting Team Performance® is a high-impact, hands-on team development program that blends interactive team challenges with actionable learning. Designed to assess, stretch, and strengthen your group's communication, leadership, and goal-setting skills, this training-focused experience helps teams move from good to great—together.

Through a series of progressively difficult challenges and targeted discussions, participants uncover what's working, identify growth areas, and immediately apply lessons in real time. This approach ensures that insights aren't just theoretical—they're experienced and reinforced through action.

Program Agenda

This fast-paced event kicks off with high-energy group activities that set the tone for fun, focused collaboration. Teams are guided through a cycle of:

- Challenge ? Debrief ? Reflection ? Next-level challenge

Each activity is chosen to match your team's current goals and working dynamics, whether you're a newly formed group, an established project team, or a high-functioning unit looking to refine performance.

Facilitators lead motivating conversations throughout, highlighting how lessons from each round apply to participants' everyday team environments. The program concludes with a celebration and shared reflection, leaving teams energized, aligned, and equipped to take their performance to the next level.

Program Outcomes & Takeaways

This program is perfect for newly formed groups, existing project teams, and even established teams that already work well together. New groups will get to know each other while engaging in activities that are challenging and help bond them together. Existing project teams will gain both individual and team-related takeaways for immediate workplace application, and for those that are already working well together the program challenges put their abilities to the test. This programs helps teams by:

- Identifying and strengthening team communication styles
- Enhancing trust and accountability through real-time application
- Encouraging shared ownership of goals and outcomes
- Aligning individual and team development
- Providing immediate, transferable tools for improving team performance
