

Helping the Homeless

Charitable Support for People Experiencing Homelessness

Socks are the most requested item at shelters across America. We learned this and much more valuable information as we designed this important CSR team building program called Helping The Homeless.

Your group will pack backpacks filled with items in a charity event for men, women, or families with children experiencing homelessness. One in 30 children is unhoused annually in America; that's 2.5 million kids!

The process for building homeless care packages will start with forming sub-teams who participate in a series of fun and challenging icebreakers and team building activities.

Through these challenges, teams earn points, which enable them to acquire the contents of the care packages. A running scorecard is posted to increase excitement and energy. The BEST backpack for unhoused persons can include clothes and blankets, toiletries and hygiene items, first aid supplies, food, school supplies and toys for children. We work with volunteer agencies to establish which items are the most requested by unhoused people.

We can work with Community Action Agencies, SOS Children's Villages, Family Promise, or source local homeless agencies through the United Way who desperately need these care packs. Every attempt will be made to have a representative from the organization attend the event and thank your group for their generosity.

This inspiring, morale-boosting event may include personal touches in the form of letters and messages written by participants to the recipients of the packages.

To ensure a great experience, aspects of this event may be modified for your group size, group makeup, time available, and other variables.

Our historically popular iPad activities are still available upon request.

Clients Talk About this Program

Thank you for really working quickly to put together your amazing Helping the Homeless program for all of us. We gave you a short window to work with and everyone was able to come together. I enjoyed seeing everyone interacting and having a great time for a worthy cause. The event was extremely organized and everyone had a great time. Your lead facilitator was well prepared and did a great job interacting with everyone.
