Program Agenda

This 1980s team building game challenges your crew's pop culture memory with fast-paced rounds of multiple-choice, true/false, and fill-in-the-blank trivia. The faster you answer, the more points you earn, so it's all about speed, memory, and a little friendly rivalry.

Participants join the action on any Apple or Android device – no downloads required. Our lively game host keeps the momentum going with real-time scoring, interactive commentary, and a leaderboard that sparks competition among the group.

This is one of the best team games about the 80s, featuring a variety of clutch categories: music, movies, TV, sports, science, politics, and more. Video clips, sound bites, photos, and themed artwork are all used to make each round immersive and memorable.
