

Record Breakers

Records don't fall by accident — and high-performing teams aren't built by luck. It takes grit, focus, trust, and a relentless drive to improve. Record Breakers is an adrenaline-charged team competition with six unique challenges designed to test your group's efficiency, collaboration, and precision under pressure. Every official attempt is tracked on a live scoreboard, instantly updating as new top performances knock previous leaders off the board. The result? A fast-paced, high-stakes battle where urgency, strategy, and execution collide—and only the most adaptive teams stay on top.

In this experience, your team must do more than just show up—they must step up. Select a challenge, huddle to plan your approach, identify inefficiencies, then test your process under pressure. If your result doesn't hold, you go again—refining, adjusting, and improving. In Record Breakers, every repetition is a chance to raise the bar. The race isn't just against your last best effort — it's competing against the best posted scores by every team in the room! Every performance is tracked live, as teams race to climb the ranks. If you're not happy with the results of any activity, you go again because here, constant improvement is the real victory. Record breaker isn't just about scoring points. Kaizen rules the day as you tighten your efficiencies, eliminate process defects, and raise the performance bar again and again! Records tumble, showcasing that better strategies evolve when teams push limits!

This program is far more than fun and games. It's a hands-on lesson in the fundamentals of high-performance: communication, agility, process improvement, and shared accountability. Your team will walk away energized and aligned — with new insights and habits that translate directly back to the workplace. Are you ready to break records... and build something stronger in the process?

Clients Talk About this Program

Your team just made the top score on one of the challenges! they are on the video scoreboard for all to see! So your team starts a different challenge and almost beats the high score on the board. Just as your team decides to try that challenge again, your top score in the other challenge gets beat! Does your team go back to that challenge and try to beat the new high score, but stay with the new challenge until it's mastered? These are just a few of the quick decisions your team needs to make in this fun but ultra-high pressure A Minute 2 Win It game with Record Breakers scoring.
