

Virtual Survey Says!

Virtual Survey Says is our fun, fast-paced corporate game show that can be played by up to 50 people, all engaged remotely, but participating and enjoying the action together as a group!

Based on the popular "Family Feud" game show, this version of Survey Says! is now a Virtual, Competitive, Team Building event! With all of the high-spirited fun and excitement of a live game show, this engaging competition will pit remote individuals/teams against each other in a contest to identify the most popular responses to thought-provoking survey questions.

Virtual Survey Says! has a real game show feel with captivating graphics and fun sound effects. Utilizing your preferred Virtual Conferencing platform, the answer board is projected in real-time to all of the players. You can even supply up to five of your own questions in this raucous game that is sure to delight the virtual crowd as much as the contestants.

After a fun face-off, contestants compete to take control of the game. With fast-paced rounds, teams can win based on securing the most points, or perhaps the two top-scoring teams can move to play in the Finals, and to see who will be the Virtual Survey Says! champions!

Your high-energy virtual gameshow comes complete with a dynamic Master of Ceremonies, sound effects, and music just like the real show. Virtual Survey Says! is ideally anywhere from 60 to 75 minutes in length, and works for groups of up to 50.

Clients Talk About this Program

"I just wanted to let you know that I enjoyed the game show and you did a really great job hosting! To me, it seems as though the whole group enjoyed it too. We'll have to try out a different game next time or one of the other offerings. We'll be in touch! Thanks again for everything! "
