

Corporate Survivor

Corporate Survivor is a riveting series of team building activities that will test the full measure of your team's physical & mental abilities! Loosely fashioned after the smash hit reality show, teams are commissioned to navigate a set of unique survivor challenges which incorporate communication, strategizing, leadership, and trust.

We start your event with a tribal warm-up to kick off the games. Teams will create a flag and chant, then roar into the various strategically led challenges that may have you racing against the stopwatch, managing the unexpected, in direct head-to-head competition with another tribe!

Get ready for Giant Slingshot, where teams compete for distance and accuracy; or imagine guiding your Blindfolded team members through an Obstacle Course, with only verbal communication to get them to the finish line. In Stranded in Maine, you are given a scenario where your team must choose a limited number of items to survive being lost in the wilderness. Other activities include Stepping Stones, On Target, Rope & Knotted, Land Raft, Turn Over a New Leaf and Nitro Circle with Ropes.

While some challenges may require that alliances be formed with other tribes, the occasional shock of losing members to a different tribe will force everyone to quickly adjust to the real-life shifting of valued members and to seize the opportunity of gaining new tribal members with new ideas and skills!
