

Charity Game Show

Charitable event or game show: why not both? Whether your company is looking for fun group bonding games between meetings or an entertainment program after dinner, our Charity Game Show is the perfect solution. By combining the excitement of a game show with a charitable donation, we've created the perfect CSR program.

Be it for children, for the homeless, or for servicemen and women, you can rest assured that your fun will benefit a worthy cause. At the conclusion of the event, a representative from your group can deliver a giant check, signed by the members of the winning team, to a representative of the charity of your choice.

Charity Game Show utilizes state-of-the-art game show podiums with face-off player positions, extra-large buttons for contestants to "buzz in," an answer board beamed up via projection, microphones, and real game-like visuals and sound effects, all to ensure an authentic game show experience.

Questions are designed to cater to domestic or international groups, with topics including World History, Sports, Entertainment, Science, Geography, Pop Culture, and even facts about the surrounding area.

This is a great team building activity; from the actual team that wins the competition, to the charity that your program benefits, everyone is a winner!

Clients Talk About this Program

"Our Charity Game Show was a very organized team builder with lots of team collaboration in a fun environment. Your lead facilitator did a great job hosting the show. He and his staff showed up on time and were prepared for the event. The competitiveness of the players, the icebreaker, and the game show host all made the event fun for everyone. The group really enjoyed the game and there was lots of positive feedback! "
